SPARTAN SEASON IN RETROSPECT

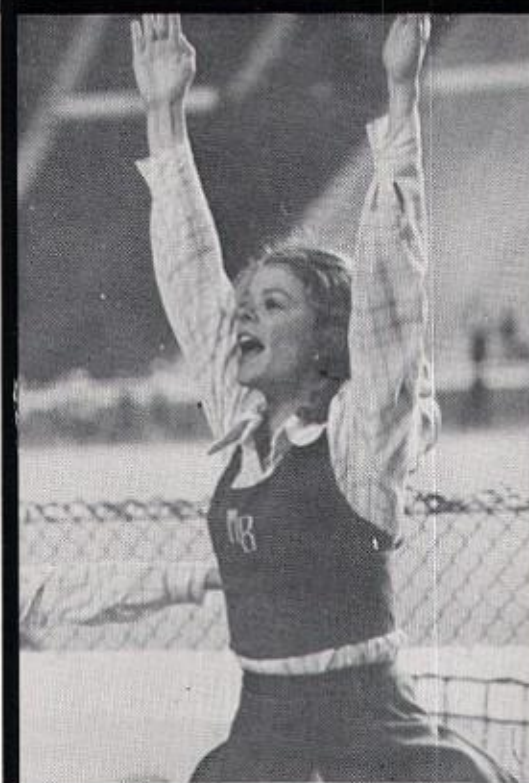

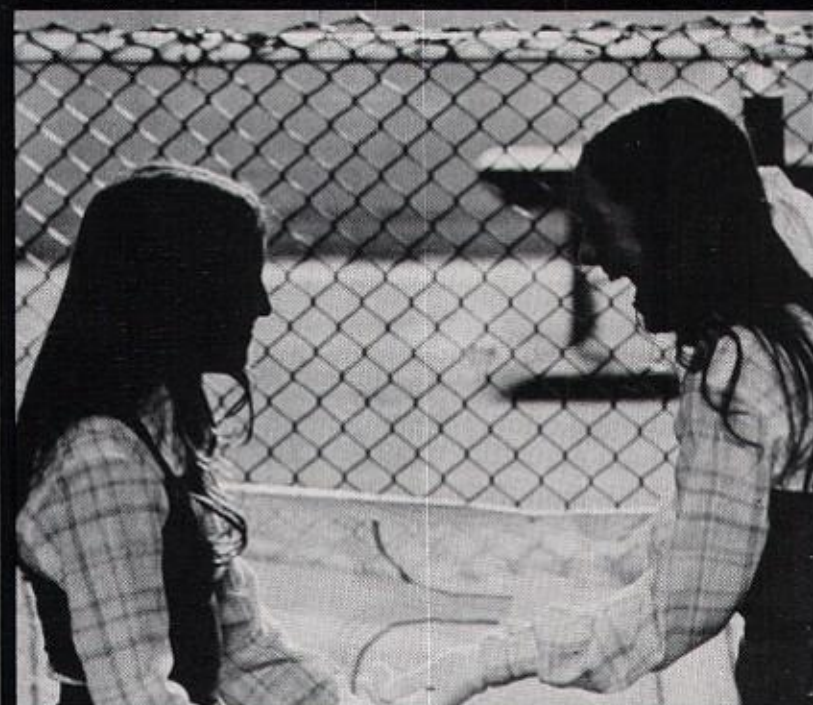

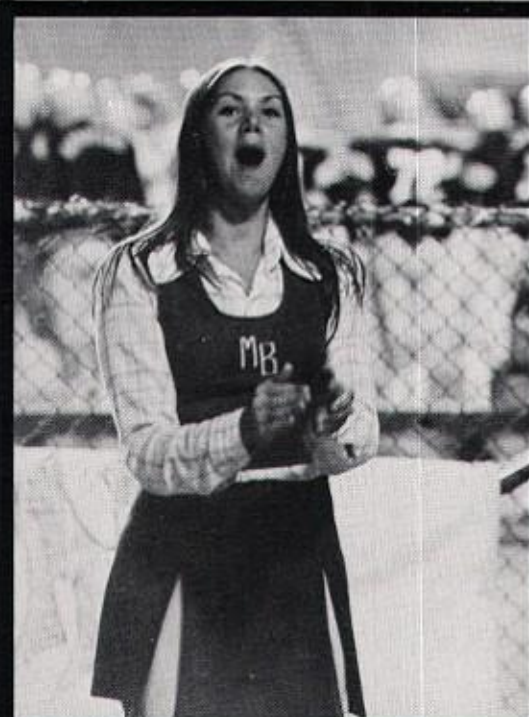

The 1973 Spartan Football season was an exciting but disappointing one. Again this year, Mountain Brook had the toughest 4A schedule in the state. Never being outclassed, the Spartans held their ground against opposition. Although the scores were not always on the Mountain Brook side, the statistics proved to be to our advantage. The Spartans were so close to victory in the games which were lost that there was always excitement in the stands. Kenny Jaffe and Tim Mulkey were elected All-Independent for the season. Mulkey and Chris McGahee were elected by the team for best offensive and defensive players.

This year's cross country team, headed by Coach Jarman, proved to have one of its most successful seasons. With outstanding individuals such as Les Porterfield, Bob Clark, and Scott Tully, the team proved to be strong on any course. Meets were attended in Mobile, Tuscaloosa, Birmingham, and surrounding areas. At the state competition, the team pulled a very strong fourth place. Les Porterfield was elected by the team as the most valuable runner. The school was proud to be represented by this year's team.

This year's Spartan Cagers have experienced one of their best seasons in recent years. Led by high scoring G. V. Meullen and Randy Bernstein, the red hot Spartans broke into the top twenty of the state. Facing one of the toughest schedules on record, the Spartans came close to breaking two of the state's top five teams. The team had a strong season, giving its four junior players valuable experience for next year.

At the Regional Tournament, the Spartan wrestling team captured third place, with all ten of the participants placing and qualifying for the State Tournament. The Spartans placed more wrestlers (eight) in the finals than any other participating school. Mountain Brook High School had three first places which were won by Ray Downey, Troy Downey, and Robert Evans.

SOPHOMORES

Loves of Life:

Every man or woman must have a certain peace when they lay down to rest after life.

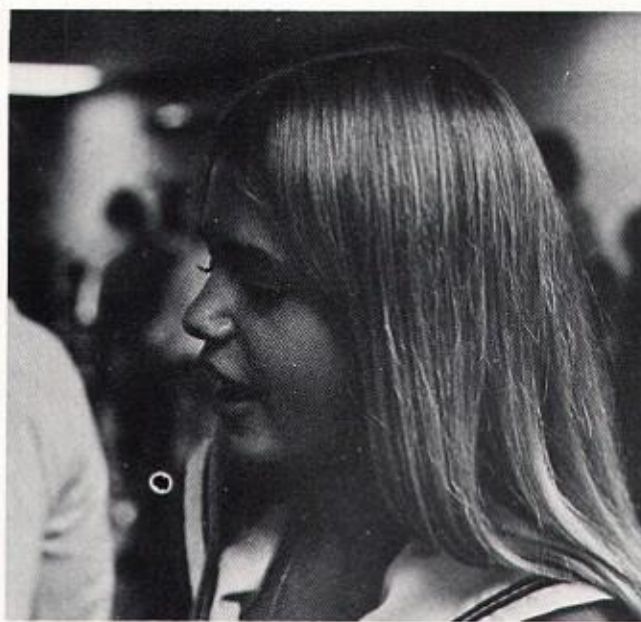

To feel he has lived his life freely,
To feel he has overcome those roadblocks that blocked his way.

To have the sense that he has had a fairly happy life, fulfilling what he needs to have.
That he feels he has helped some people along the rugged road toward life.

To have honestly had one happy and peaceful love.

To have the true feeling he has achieved what he set out to do.

He should feel peaceful inside and love himself and the world.

When someone you love dies, it's sad.
You think back on all the things you did and shared with each other.

Each day you wish you could open your eyes and there he'd be with his arms open and his heart filled with love.

But then you do open your eyes and all you see are his memories — and you ask God WHY?
Why did you take the one I loved so?

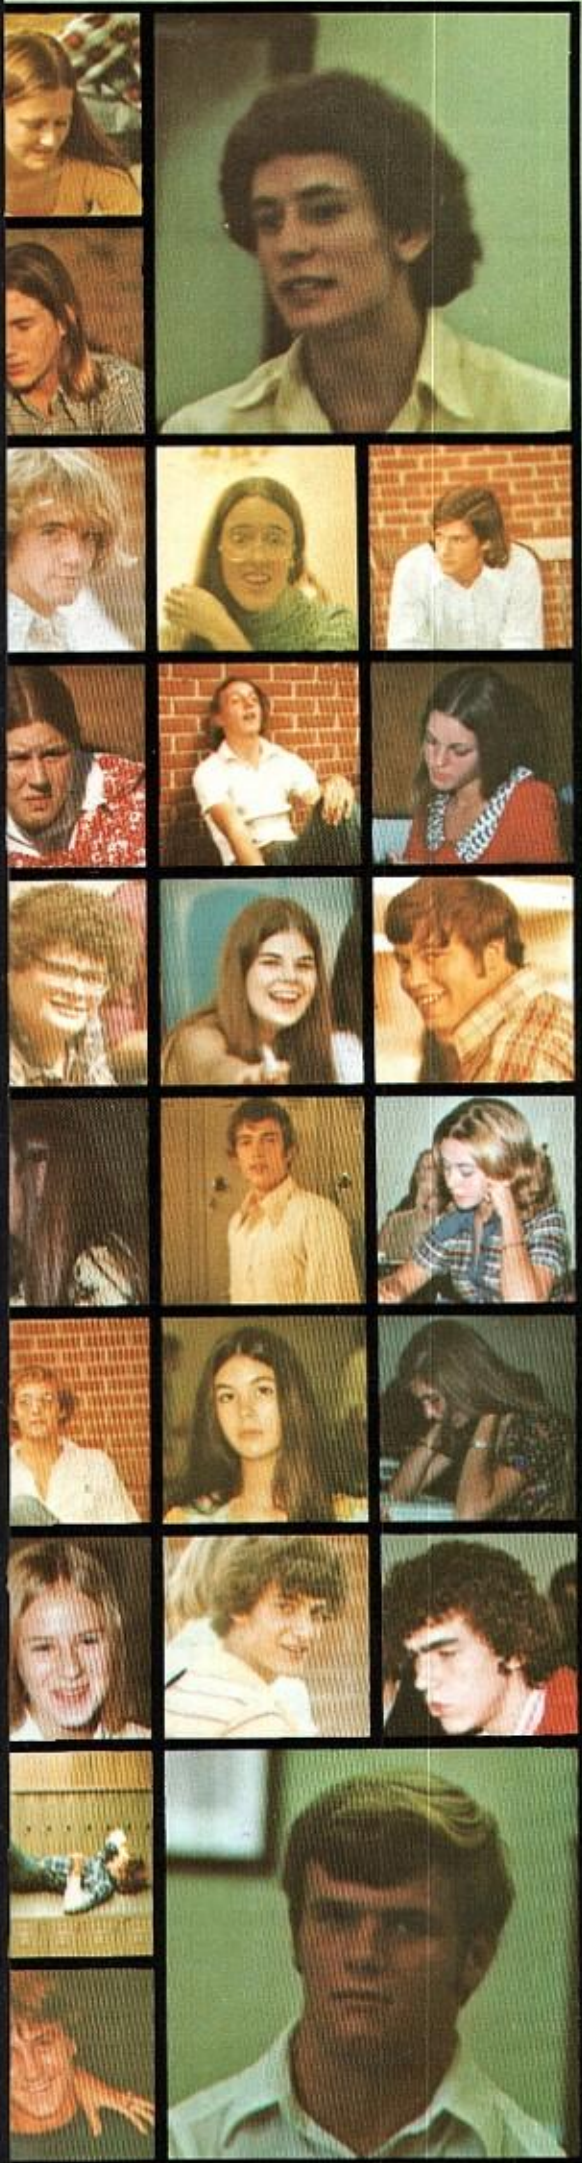

Christy Gray

We are all but children Groping through the dark labyrinth of time.
 May God grant you someone To share your tears
 To dry your sorrows
 And to make earth's purgatory Worth your while.

Where is yesterday?

That was when life was free.

Unashamed and filled with love.

Yesterday was when I could wake up knowing someone cared and that I would be happy.

Where is yesterday?

The people I once knew and once loved; have they all gone with yesterday?

Why should something like yesterday be missing when the world needs all that it gave. The beautiful lakes, oceans, and mountains; are they all gone with yesterday?

Now all that is left today, and it will be gone soon, probably to the same place yesterday went.

Friendship — like a chain of memories Can never be broken Always can bind
Two hearts together in harmony — Welding it strong Holding fast each link Through tears, defeat, even death —
The chain is carried even unto the grave.

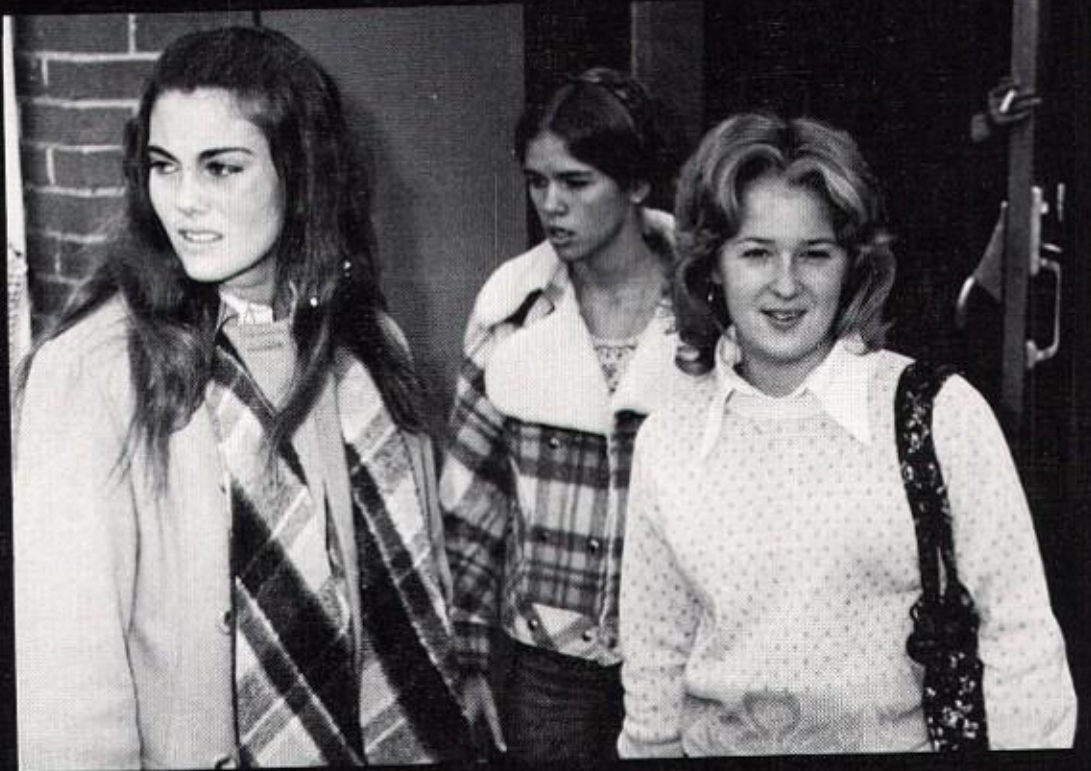

Lynn Head

Dreams are my food.
They are my present, past and future.
I could not continue without my dreams.

US AND THEM

Us, and them

And after all we're only ordinary men

Me, and you

God only knows it's not what we would choose to do

Forward he cried from the rear and the front rank died

And the General sat, and the lines on the map moved from side to side

Black and blue

And who knows which is which and who is who

Up and Down

And in the end it's only round and round and round

Haven't you heard it's a battle of words the poster bearer cried

Listen son, said the man with the gun

There's room for you inside

Down and Out

It can't be helped but there's a lot of it about

With, without

And who'll deny that's what the fighting's all about

Get out of the way, it's a busy day

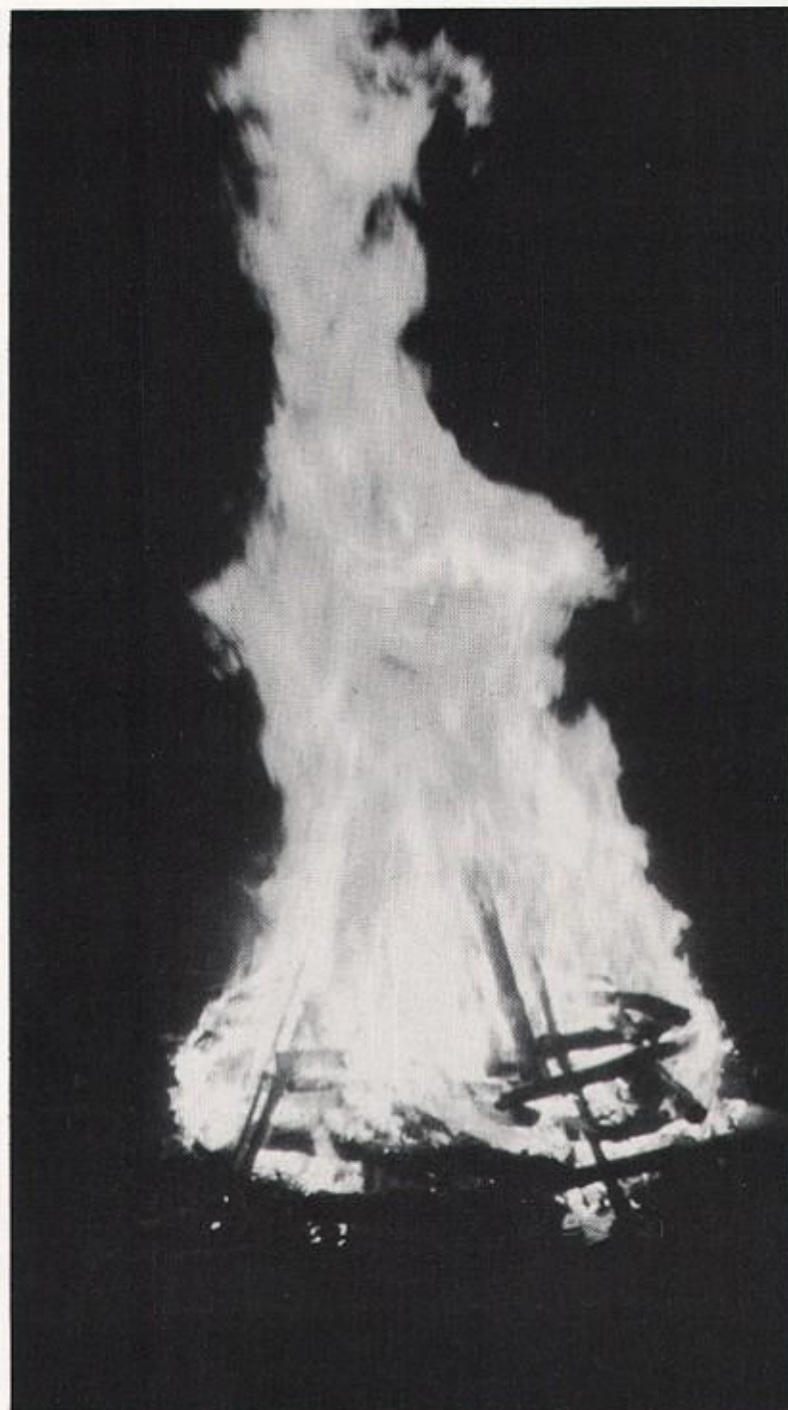

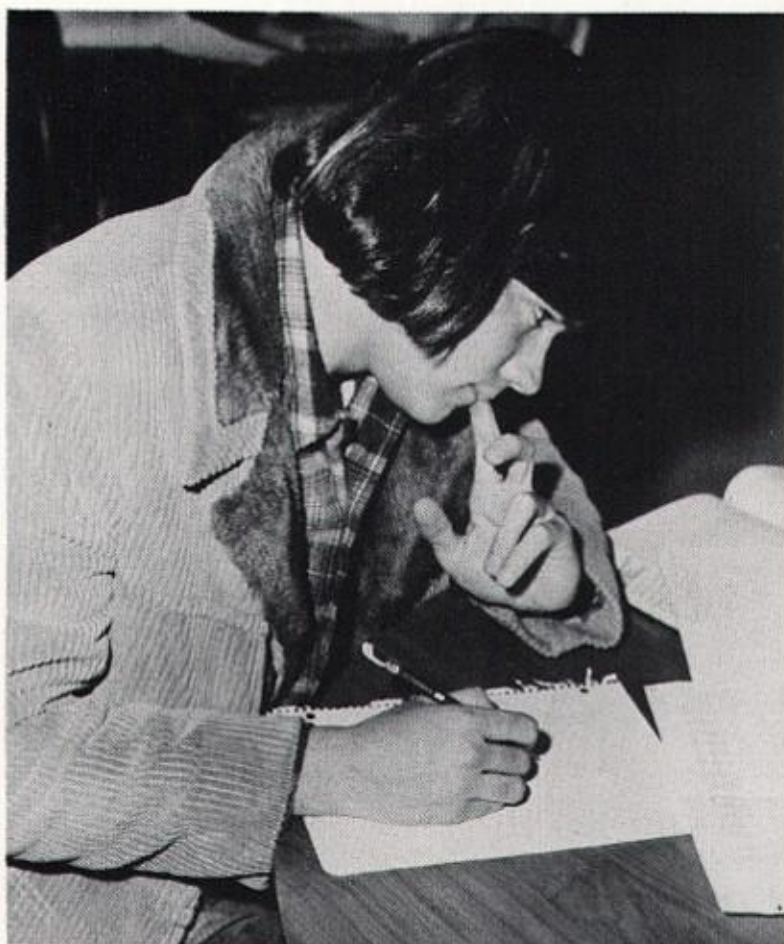

And I've got things on my mind

For want of the price of tea and a slice

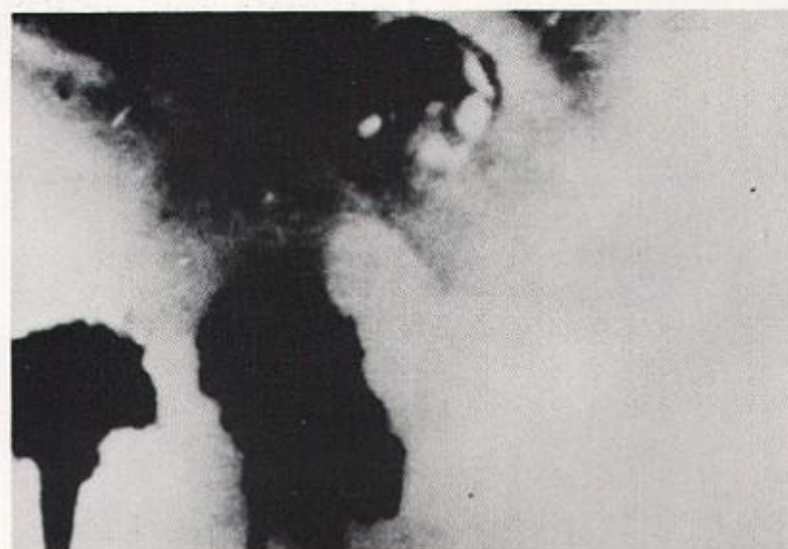

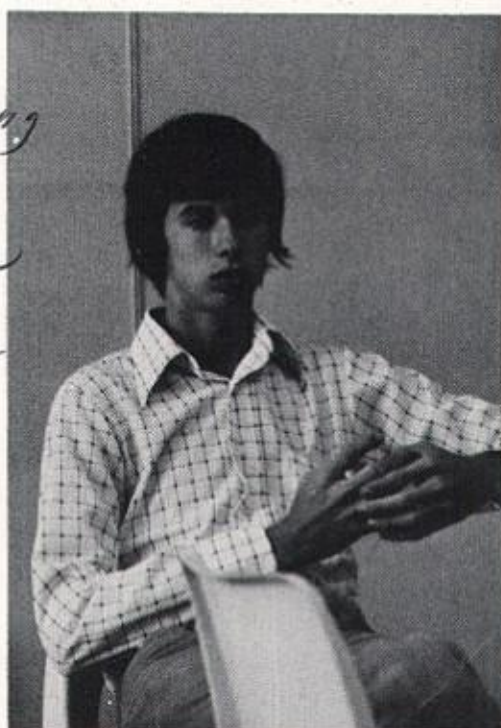

The old man died.

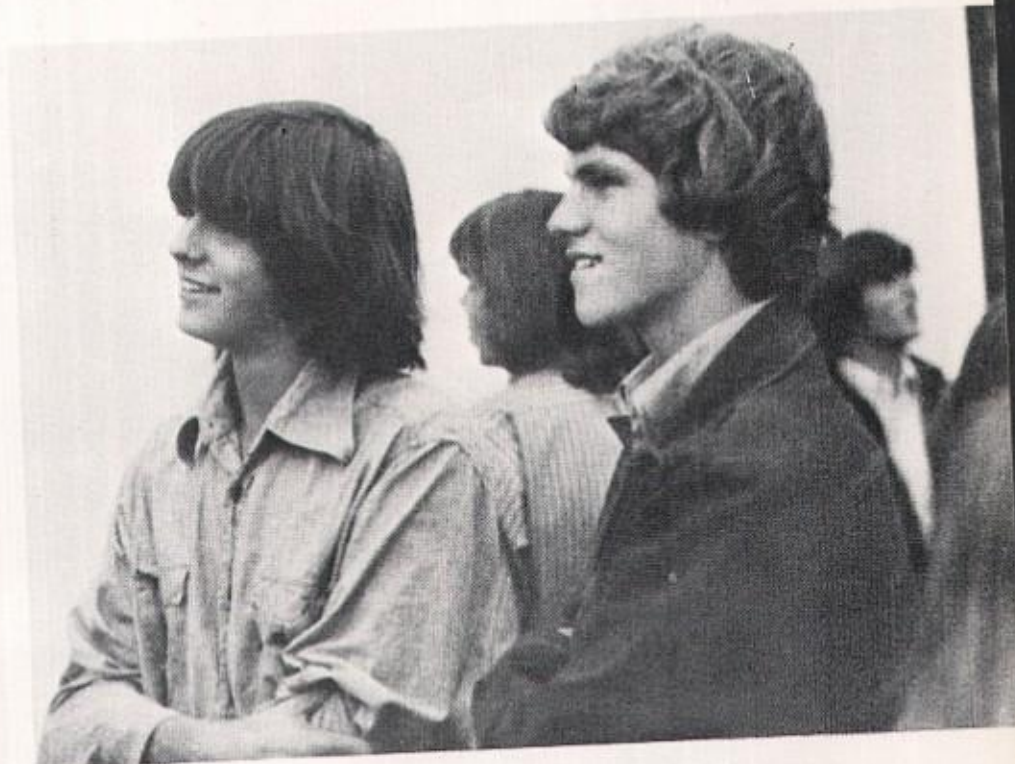

STUDENT IMPRESSIONS

The individualist stems from a realization of life; learning that life ahead is himself, thus, using his freedom as his authority toward escape. This escape drives others away in competition, bringing in a definite barrier of loneliness.

Each man makes his own giant leap from day to day with only his shadow to follow his actions.

Each man must make his own new day, for everything in life's model fits to scale.

Solidity is found when the bricks of life and time form a shelter.

The extremist is closest to wisdom, for wisdom is learned through the extremes of both optimism and cynicism.

"We can never have enough of nature."
The above words, penned by Henry David Thoreau in the mid-19th century, could have been written this morning. Because our way of life has changed so much in the past hundred years, today more than ever we have a longing for nature — a feeling for the land as it used to be. It is part of our heritage, part of our bone and sinew, and deep within each of us is the song of the wilderness.

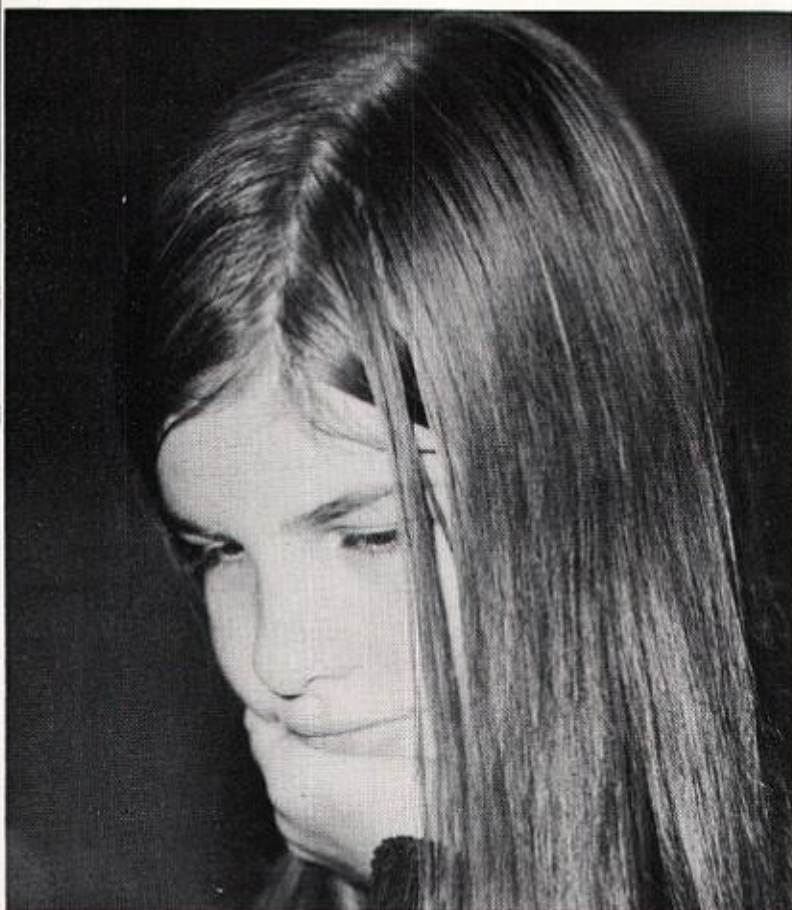

SAH

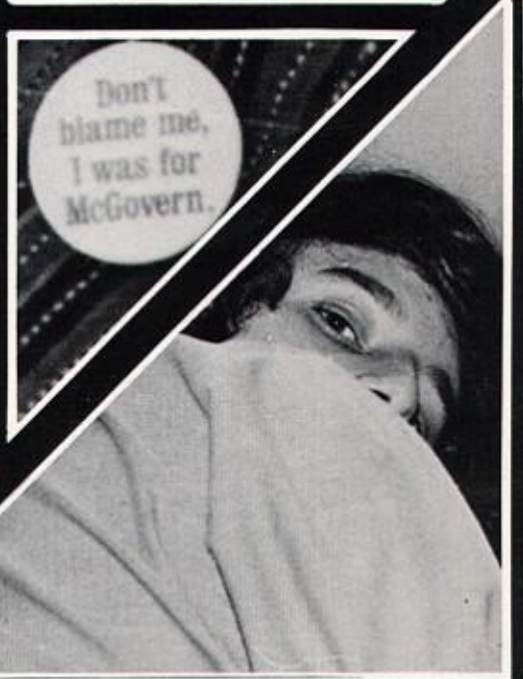

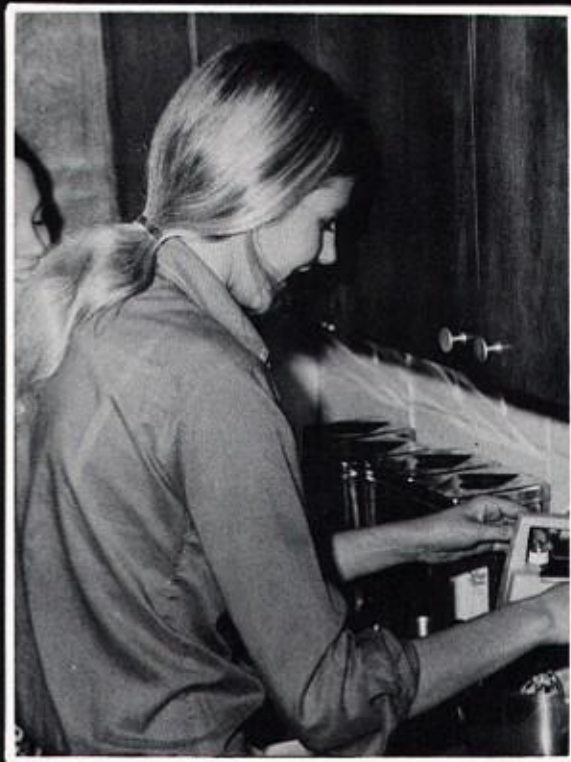

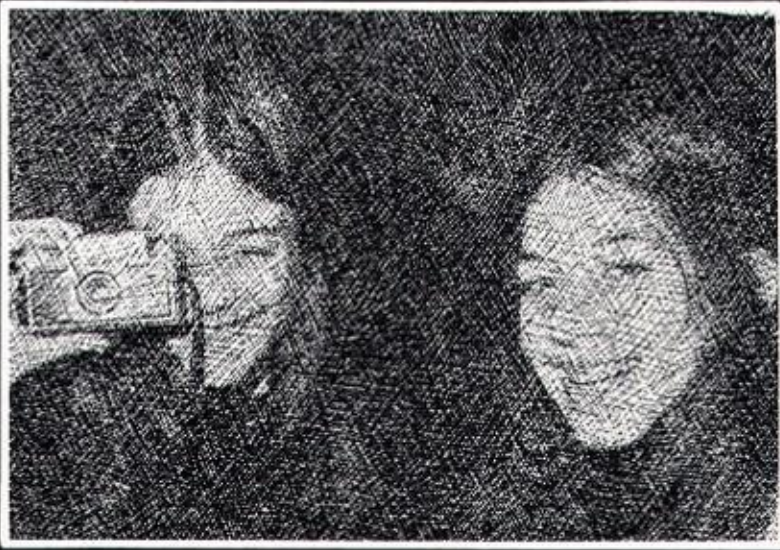

Since each must place his thumbprint
 On the world,
 I now press mine, gentle and trembling, Taut with expectation Yet so light only assembling Dust, disturbed,
 Flees the silent event
 With banner unfurled, Proclaiming my invitation
 To the wayward, willfull wanderers Once more.

I watch the puff dissembling From its finely-whorled formation, Wiping wantonly away until disintegration Sifts my message to mere garbled Aimless specters of salvation.

But each speck becomes an irritant And man must mold that pearl Whose shape and burnish varies with a thought Yet gleams forever,
 For the constant zephyr Wafts each grain's intent — Then what am I, both spring and source, if not The aspiration
 Of soon summing peaks higher Than before,
 And failing, find defeat renews desire To trial the ultimate, united destination — Perfection: the Olympus of all lesser rocks.

And if by inspiration Born to many, I am lost To all, then let this be My pardon — that I gambled tangibility On hopes I could not touch, And fumbled in the mist
 To grasp man's longed-for laurel, Only laughing, scorned the circlet Pride had made and tossed
 It to oblivion, so Olympus could exist, Providing life to man While unattained;
 Thus each who falls and fails Ensures by his own path variety; Eternal difference cannot be encompassed.
 There our natures equal and surpass The height of glory —
 By defying definition We'll transcend the need for heaven And approach Olympian finity,

For who can draw the circle 'round infinity?

Tim - How could you even forget and all at the things you made of the food items. Remember us for food we went into burger that time you had those shoes on.
King and never forget. Have a great time I could and always take care.

Becky

 I'M SO GLAD THAT WE'RE STILL FRIENDS THIS YEAR
 EVEN THOUGH WE DON'T

 (MAYBE NEXT YEAR WE WILL.)

 YOUR 10th GRADE LOVE!

 SUZANNE

Kim,
 We have been friends ever since we met at CPBB. We have over 100 personal jokes & I hope we will continue to make them. You have told me that you are worried about our friendship since I had made Dorians & Spartanelles. Those honors will make me happy but they will not satisfy my need for true friends.
 We have been as close as siamese twins but now we are not. It is me that needs to worry about losing a friend, not you. Our fellowship with one another has been broken for some time now. We don't have any of the same friends. You are constantly in my prayers because I feel that you are not as close to God as you were. You made a commitment at Youth camp last year and you have completely changed. You know I love you and want to help you but it is so hard for me. You have the potential to be a fantastic child of God and witness to those who need it most (smoking area). You have a talent for talking to those people. I am so prudish that I could never do it. But you, you understand their feelings and could lead them to Christ by your words & actions. You will never know how much you matter to me.
 I have protected your name so many times & when I find out the something is true, it tears v - 48.
